National Association for Business Resources Announces the first Round of The Nation's Best and Brightest in Wellness for 2026

Detroit, MI – April 15, 2026 – The National Association for Business Resources (NABR) is proud to announce its first round of the Nation's Best and Brightest in Wellness winners for 2026. This prestigious recognition honors organizations that demonstrate a strong commitment to fostering a culture of wellness and supporting the overall health and wellbeing of their employees.

These distinguished winners demonstrate an exceptional commitment to employee wellbeing, championing innovative programs and initiatives that foster a healthy, work environment. Their comprehensive wellness approach includes physical fitness initiatives, mental health resources, and financial wellness education, all designed to support the holistic wellbeing of their team members.

The Best and Brightest in Wellness award recognizes companies that go above and beyond to create healthier, more productive workplaces. Winners are evaluated across multiple categories, including wellness culture, work environment, employee input, financial wellbeing, leadership commitment, and physical and mental health.

The organizations recognized as a 2026 Best and Brightest in Wellness winner truly understand that wellness is not a program, it's a commitment," said Jennifer Kluge, President and CEO of NABR and the Best and Brightest Programs. "These companies are leading with intention, investing in the whole person, and creating cultures where employees can thrive both personally and professionally. At a time when wellbeing, resilience, and connection matter more than ever, this year's winners are setting a powerful example."
